Notice.

Mrs. E. J. Monahan, of Maryville, Mo., will be in Brownville on Feb 15th, and remain three days. Call on her at the Union House, where she is prepared to treat all forms of eye diseases successfully. Her treatment is a permanent cure for granulated eye lids and all forms of inflammation of the eyes.

Surgical operations will be performed by Dr. D. C. Wilson, of Maryville.

On Monday night, last, George Kelly, Mollie Kelley and Hattie Porter, who had been in the city but a few days, hailing from Hamburg, Iowa, were arrested by Chief of Police, Lannan, on information filed in Police Judge Hulburd's court by George Andrews, that the outfit were running a house of ill fame. They were jailed for the night and arraigned next morning before said court. They indignantly, and Hattie in tears, entered the plea of "not guilty." The examination of several alleged witnesses failed to evolve anything especially and positively damaging to the virtue of the Kelly troupe, and they were discharged, and the costs taxed up to the prosecuting witness, Andrews, who failed to appear and prosecute the case he had commenced.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

C. E. Foote, of the Omaha Bee, was in the city Tuesday.

Abe. Williams, of Peru, called Friday. See "ad" in another column.

W. T. Reed, Frank Tenny, and others, of Sheridan, was in town Thursday.

Mrs. Evans, of Nemaha precinct, called Saturday to pay for THE ADVERTISER.

Mrs. Wm. Berger, after a two weeks' visit with her brother in Missouri, returned home Monday.

Mr. H. S. Smith, traveling correspondent of the Omaha Republican, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

Hon. Church Howe was in the city Saturday. We were pleased to see him in excellent health, after his protracted western trip.

Mr. George Berlin, some weeks ago went to Illinois upon notification by telegram that his brother Jerry was dead, and returned home Thursday last.

Mrs. Fannie J. Ebricht, Mr. John S. Minick, Mr. A. J. Skeen, and others from the county, whose names we did not get, went Hastings Tuesday as representatives to the grand lodge of Good Templars, which met in that city Wednesday.

O. J. Stowell, Esq., of Sheridan, called on us a few days ago, and we had our first conversation with him. While he felt aggrieved and injured by the recent attack upon him in the ADVERTISER, he did not blame us, feeling confident that we had been misinformed, misled, and villainously imposed upon by a most unscrupulous liar. Mr. Stowell left little doubt with us that he was telling the truth—that he had been greatly wronged. He said he could and would send us sufficient evidence to convince us, beyond a doubt, that he had nothing whatever to do directly or indirectly, with Taggart's slanderous publication. Tuesday evening this week, we received several letters from gentlemen of Sheridan, all going to show Stowell's declarations to be true—all going to show that Taggart had lied, wholly, fully, thoroughly, without a saving ray or shadow of truth in all he said. We would publish these letters, but for a special request of Mr. Stowell that we should not publish them. We will respect his wishes in this matter. As our columns were used to make him appear low, mean, contemptible, they are at his service to make his vindication as broad, as were the charges, and the manner and method must be left with him. We have a few more items to gather regarding this matter, and then we will have something more to say, ere its final dismissal.

The entertainment given by the Good Templars, Monday night, was in every respect a success. The assemblage was composed of the best people of Brownville and vicinity, and was sufficiently large to fill the hall when all were comfortably seated. Financially it was extraordinarily successful for the size of the crowd. The amount received for admission was only about $30, but W. H. Hoover, Church Howe, B. M. Bailey and others, entered into a contest over some handsome cakes, to be presented to the favorite lady of the winning party, and by their enthusiasm more than doubled the receipts above named. One cake, made by Mrs. T. C. Hacker, brought $22, was won by the champions—headed by Church Howe—of a good old colored lady. Another cake went for $15, and so on. Mr. Howe entered into the spirit of the friendly struggle for the "cake" with his usual determination to win, and squandered "for the good of the cause," about twenty-five dollars; and some one said Howe gave within a few dollars of half of the entire receipts. Well, Mr. Howe can stand it and so can the G. T.'s, and its all right.

By the way, the audience was surprised and delighted by the exercises of a short but excellent programme of singing, recitations, readings, and essays. We regret that our space forbids a notice in detail of this most entertaining feature of the evening's entertainment. After the literary and song, plates were distributed and all treated to coffee, cake, apples, etc. It was in fact a very nice impromptu soiree, and everybody said so.

If anyone asks what set the dogs to barking, all the bells to ringing, guns to be fired, and the trumpets to be blown wrong side out, and drums to beat, on last Saturday night, just inform them that the cause of all this joy was the arrival of a bouncing boy at Wash Hacker's.

V. T.

The trial of Guiteau will probably end this week. Scoville closed the argument for defense on Wednesday, and balance of the week will be occupied by the closing argument of prosecution by Porter, and the delivery of the judge's charge to the jury. As to how long it will take the jury to come to an agreement upon a verdict, of course no one can tell, or what that verdict will be. They may not agree at all.

Guilt of Wrong.

Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the blood from your cheeks; that continual strain on your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

We are receiving large invoices of furniture, stoves, and other goods in our line, quite often. If you need any give us a call.
